Discovering Literacy : Access Routes to Written Culture for a Group of Women in Mexico

On October 14-19, 1990, the 6th International Conference on the Conservation of Earthen Architecture was held in Las Cruces, New Mexico. Sponsored by the GCI, the Museum of New Mexico State Monuments, ICCROM, CRATerre-EAG, and the National Park Service, under the aegis of US/ICOMOS, the event was organized to promote the exchange of ideas, techniques, and research findings on the conservation of earthen architecture. Presentations at the conference covered a diversity of subjects, including the historic traditions of earthen architecture, conservation and restoration, site preservation, studies in consolidation and seismic mitigation, and examinations of moisture problems, clay chemistry, and microstructures. In discussions that focused on the future, the application of modern technologies and materials to site conservation was urged, as was using scientific knowledge of existing structures in the creation of new, low-cost, earthen architecture housing.

Global challenges such as war, climate change, poverty and inequality are overwhelming nation-states and today's international institutions. Achieving a world community that is peaceful, just and sustainable requires a democratic world parliament. This book describes the history, relevance and practical steps to implement this monumental project.

The definitive, bestselling book on the origins of nationalism, and the processes that have shaped it. Imagined Communities, Benedict Anderson ' s brilliant book on nationalism, forged a new field of study when it first appeared in 1983. Since then it has sold over a quarter of a million copies and is widely considered the most important book on the subject. In this greatly anticipated revised edition, Anderson updates and elaborates on the core question: what makes people live and die for nations, as well as hate and kill in their name? Anderson examines the creation and global spread of the "imagined communities" of nationality, and explores the processes that created these communities: the territorialization of religious faiths, the decline of antique kinship, the interaction between capitalism and print, the development of secular languages-of-state, and changing conceptions of time and space. He shows how an originary nationalism born in the Americas was adopted by popular movements in Europe, by imperialist powers, and by the movements of anti-imperialist resistance in Asia and Africa. In a new afterword, Anderson examines the extraordinary influence of Imagined Communities, and the book's international publication and reception, from the end of the Cold War era to the present day.

Como cruz y calvario se funden y pierden las pasiones de los bardos que coexistieron aquí , marcando su tenue luz, tabernáculos, luego como sombras en pena cuantifican sus pisadas en las humildes calles del olvido y desesperanza, entre bombillos tenues y callejuelas que van perdiendo su brillo. Los pasillos son ya barandas con aldabas hospitalarias, cruentas de humildes e indiferentes al mundo, (no para el viejo poeta del caserío olvidado). Como todos; terminan en la neópolis de su poblado, (también en obseso), encabezando las siglas de alguna cripta mixta, desechada o terreno baldío, y el silencio desptico coloca su adoguñiletrado.Hoy se intenta rescatar toda la sabiduría en céntrico y romanza que perdimos al despedir a estos coterráneos ilustres, ensalzar a cada reotico, cada lrico que a flor se aliste. Todo comienza en el mes de abril del año 2017, por petición de mis colegas en la Isla, solicitando la oportunidad de publicación, y a pocos meses del fallecimiento ignorado de José Herrera Díaz, (el maestro de muchos), surge esta idea protectora como primer ladrillo plantado después del desorden. Queremos dejar claro que a irreverencia se implica todo aquel que aporte a la pérdida de las cimentaciones armónicas y culturales de un pueblo que intentan hoy perder en la niebla, poblado con profunda historia cultural, literaria, en estos días ignorada por las nuevas generaciones. Todo ello conlleva a la estadía de un vacío casi irreparable, pero nada es imposible mientras exista conciencia, deseos masónicos de creación y rescate. Entran al correo los primeros trabajos, el poeta "Éliseser López" es el primero que responde a mi llamado, seguido por la poetisa "Yenia Catalina Reyes" más tarde; por contactos de Bernal, una discípula del bardo "Victor Puertodrín" alegórica a esta tierra capitalina. Se emprende en este mismo periodo la confección y esbozos, (de manera inmediata), para los conclusivos capítulos del ejemplar.Encabezan su introducción poemas de "Clemencia Gómez Toro" (hija del mayor general Maximiliano Gómez Baez), realizados en la temporada que moraron en este pueblo. Estos manuscritos, (donados por el historiador del pueblo Eduardo Bernal), fueron sometidos a una larga limpieza y restauración digital por el editor, (quien escribe), aprobando la excelente idea del historiador para encabezar esta obra entre poetas en diversos años y edades del territorio. Se menciona y honra a José Herrera Díaz en diversos momentos del compendio, nuestro gran amigo, poeta, pintor, artista de cine, fallecido recientemente y víctima del olvido e ignorancia establecida, es esta omisión contra la cual intentamos batallar. "Margenes del Almendares" se muestra hoy no sólo como compendio poético, sino también forjando el legado, seguimiento de cada escritor en mi tierra natal. Este poblado nuestro, herido, rico en historia ineludible y palmeras entre calabazas, cautiva a los poetas sembrados en las orillas del inolvidable río, expone la cosecha florecida de aquellos arduos arados. Esta es la primera edición conocida al respecto, asumida por "Hora Alpha" en pro de honrar y rescate de valores tradicionales, hoy adentramos simultáneamente a las mamparas perdidas "hoy somos la tertulia". Rubén A. de los SantosPoeta y pintor de la Ciudad.

This book is a study of politics and the changing configuration of power in a developing country in which political domination during the past 155 years has almost without exception coincided with economic hegemony.
