Collective biography of prominent people in Indonesia.

Scholars of language ideology have encouraged us to reflect on and explore where social categories come from, how they have been reproduced, and whether and to what extent they are relevant to everyday interactional practices. Taking up on these issues, this book focuses on how ethnicity has been semiotically constructed, valued, and reproduced in Indonesia since Dutch colonial times, and how this category is drawn upon in everyday talk. In doing so, this book also seeks to engage with scholarship on superdiversity while highlighting some points of engagement with work on ideas about community. The book draws upon a broad range of scholarship on Indonesia, recordings of Indonesian television from the mid-1990s onwards, and recordings of the talk of Indonesian students living in Japan. It is argued that some of the main mechanisms for the reproduction and revaluation of ethnicity and its links with linguistic form include waves of technological innovations that bring people into contact (e.g. changes in transportation infrastructure, introduction of print media, television, radio, the internet, etc.), and the increasing use of one-to-many participation frameworks such as school classrooms and the mass media. In examining the talk of sojourning Indonesians the book goes on to explore how ideologies about ethnicity are used to establish and maintain convivial social relations while in Japan. Maintaining such relationships is not a trivial thing and it is argued that the pursuit of conviviality is an important practice because of its relationship with broader concerns about eking out a living.

Lis tidak pernah menyangka harus berpisah dengan Darren karena laki-laki itu mesti melanjutkan studinya di luar negeri. Perpisahan itu membawa trauma pada Lis. Dia merasa hidupnya terombang-ambing karena sudah nyaman dengan kehadiran Darren. Sebagai terapi, dia menulis sebuah buku puisi yang akhirnya diterbitkan oleh penerbit tempatnya bekerja. Meski demikian, dia memakai nama pena agar orang lain tidak tahu soal puisi yang dia ciptakan. Tidak disangka-sangka, tiba-tiba Darren kembali hadir di hidupnya. Laki-laki itu menjadi manajer di galeri terkenal sekaligus seniman sukses. Lambat laun, sosoknya hadir lagi di kehidupan Lis. Lis pun merasa hidupnya kembali utuh saat Darren berada di sisinya. Namun, Lis sadar ada yang berbeda dengan hubungannya kali ini. Lis tidak tahu laki-laki itu menganggapnya sebagai apa. Jangan-jangan Lis terjebak dalam permainan òmantan jadi sahabatÓ? Menjelang pergantian tahun baru, Lis ingin memastikan perasaan Darren terhadapnya. Berbagai dugaan saling tumpang tindih. Haruskah Lis tetap pada keputusan awal untuk meminta kejelasan akan perasaan Darren? Atau mestinya dia urungkan saja niat itu?
