Covering Islam by Edward W. Said 9780679756007 —

In Covering Islam, Edward W. Said makes some vitally important points that remind us that our relationship with many countries (and not just in the countries/cultures/people who are Arabic or Islamic or in the Middle East) is informed by a media that does not always do justice to the people they cover -- in many cases, the media generalizes and demonizes.

Review of Edward Said, Covering Islam , Vintage Books, 1997: $ 13.00. Edward Said is one of the best-known Palestinian intellectuals. His Ph.D. is from Harvard; he is currently a Professor at Columbia. His intellectual contribution to the West s understanding of itself -- especially in its relation to the rest of the world -- is as great as any living person. For instance, Said s Orientalism (1978) is a dense but crucial study of the Nineteenth Century roots of the West s continuing ...
