ENGLISH LITERATURE ADMISSIONS TEST

The ELAT is designed to test a candidate's close reading skills, and their ability to shape and articulate an informed response to unfamiliar literary material. You will be asked to write one essay comparing two passages, focusing on elements such as language, imagery, syntax, form and structure. You will be given six passages on the same theme.

Preparing for ELAT. ELAT does not require a lot of extra study. It is not a test of wide reading, nor is it based on the assumption that there are certain texts that all candidates should have read by this stage in their education. This means that there are no recommended textbooks for further reading. Page 1/5
