“ 50 Great Short Stories, ” first published in 1952 and edited by Milton Crane, has been a popular high school textbook in the U.S., judging by the number of printings the book has had. The weathered copy I read was the 46th printing in 1983 and used as a textbook for Skyline High School in Oakland.

Not the fifty greatest American short stories, just fifty good American short stories. Crane oftentimes rejected the better known works from the short fiction masters and also included some little known short stories from well-known novelists. So, there are many good stories here, but few truly exceptional ones.

Fifty Great Short Stories by Milton Crane. My rating: 3 of 5 stars. 50 Great Short Stories (1952) is edited by Milton Crane and contains stories no later than 1954 (the second edition), despite being reissued in September, 2005. So there are no new stories in this collection (none in the last sixty years, that is).
