Reforming the Prison.

A seminal work, this is a unique text in that it provides personal accounts from prisoners telling what it is really like to live in prison as well as historical and contextual information.

Hard Time is a thoughtful and well written examination of issues necessary to understand and reform prison.

Johnson discusses prison history, the pains of imprisonment, guards, and some directions for reform.

He feels that prison, as punishment, must be painful; it must also (following Plato) make the offender 'less of a wretch.'
