The writing in If You Find Me is lovely, but it is the compelling story and the deep underground stream of powerful emotions that make it shine. At the same time, not everything in the story works as well; the abundance of similes didn't always gel and occasionally took me out of the story.

~~If You Find Me | Emily Murdoch | Book Review | Good Books ...~~

Emily Murdoch is a debut author to watch out for, and If You Find Me was absolutely fantastic. I think this is a great book for those in search of issue books that don't stomp on your heart and smush it to pieces—the emotion is there, but it's much more joyful and bright than is typical of realistic fiction.
