How I Survived Middle School Series by Nancy E. Krulik

The book Middle School how I Survived Bullies, Broccoli and Snake Hill by James Patterson is a 5 out of 5 stars. I loved this book because of how hooking it was and I never wanted to stop reading. It felt as though the author was really talking to me and it felt very different from other books in that way. Although this book did get confusing ...

How I Survived Middle School is a series of young adult novels by Nancy Krulik, who has written more than 100 books for children and young adults. The series centers around a preteen girl named Jenny McAfee as she enters and goes through middle school. The series has gained popularity among both young adults and librarians for the interactions built into the series for readers, such as self-scored quizzes.

How I Survived Middle School - Wikipedia

How I Survived Middle School is a very good book. It really tells you how hard it is sometimes to fit in and find the right group of friends and how you need to adventure out to find new people that like you for you. It tells you that you don't have to change yourself just to fit in, and Jenny does change herself.

How I Survived Middle School: Books #1-4 by Nancy E. Krulik

Understand that in middle school, intentionally or, in most cases, unintentionally, you will make enemies. The only way to survive is to have a close group of friends who you can trust. You don't need too many close friends; three or four good friends, and then several casual friends is definitely enough.
