Mr And Mrs Disraeli A

The writing is Mary Anne Disraeli's: the qualities listed contrast her with her husband, Benjamin Disraeli, one of the foremost politicians of the Victorian age. The daughter of a sailor, on her second marriage and 12 years older than her husband, Mary Anne was highly eccentric, liable to misbehave and (worse still) overdressed for grand society dinners.

Mr and Mrs Disraeli: A Strange Romance: Amazon.co.uk: Hay ...

Both Disraeli and Mary Anne had a tendency to romanticise and reinvent their backgrounds and, later, their marriage. Mary Anne came from a fairly humble background and her marriage in 1815 to Wyndham Lewis, a wealthy man, but much older than her and very different in temperament, was largely due to financial and social considerations.

When they first met in 1832 she struck him as a 'flirt and a rattle'. They became closer in 1837 when Disraeli was elected for Maidstone as a Conservative MP, with Wyndham Lewis as his co-member. When Lewis died shortly afterwards, his widow paid Disraeli's election expenses, and the two began an affair that culminated in marriage a year later.
