Hans Belting, Likeness and Presence: A History of the Image before the Era of Art, Chicago, 1994, p. 459. From paintings and sculpture, to ceramics, textiles and buildings, art history is the exploration of visual, material and spatial creativity in historical context. We can learn so much about historical change in the past and present by examining images, objects and spaces – whether art, design and architecture, photography, dress and performance, or museums and sites of heritage.
