The Aladdin Factor by Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen ...

The Aladdin factor is a concept that argues that we don't see many of our wishes fulfilled because we don't ask. We underestimate the likelihood that people will say "yes" when we ask for a favor. We underestimate the "Aladdin factor", which says that what we ask for will be granted. Studies have shown that people aren't very confident that there's a willingness in others to complete the questionnaires they're given, donate to charities, or simply listen to what we have to say.
